

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. This is clearly meant to affect the election and is harmful to our democracy.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Please protect our public airwaves and stop Sinclair from airing this documentary. This is election propaganda and not in the best interests of our country.

Thank you.
